The Platform.

At the speech, the platform was presented. It calls for steadfast fidelity to American principles, for the lack of which it arraiges the Republican party; de-mands the return to the principles Thomas Jefferson, to stop demoralization of the country; opposes trusts that injuriously affect consumers and manu-facturers and drive out small dealers and especially condemns the so-called beef and coal trusts for "unreasonably testriction of the amassing of wealth going it alone.

In Wallace an amusing incident occurred, Judge W. B. Heyburn, a perpetual senatorial candidate, opening a Morrison meeting with an old-time protection and prosperity speech, which was so diametrically opposed to the state platform and to Morrison's straddle on the question, that the latter could not make his regular set speech, and so was entirely disconcerted throughout the hour he talked. WENT DOWN TO DEATH

Two Miners Killed and One New York, Oct. 1.—The coal situation in New York is no better today. The supplies of hard coal in the tenement districts are now at such a low ebb that dealers are charging their customers a trifle over 1 cent a pound for this article. A committee of flat and tenement owners said today that they were unable to get over a ton of coal at a time, paying $25 a ton. The gas companies are beginning to refuse more contracts, owing to the great demand for gas as a fuel, and it is said that oil stove dealers cannot begin to fill the orders received during the last month. Jackson, proxy. CACHE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES. Convention Puts Up Splendid Men

For Office. (Special to The Herald.) OGAN, Oct. 1.-The Democratic county convention for the naming ing. Townsend alleges that Moroni went to the Powell home yesterday and told them that he had been sent by his uncle to get a gun from the latter's chest. Permission was given him to pry open the lid and go into the chest. When Townsend returned home he of a county and legislative ticket met here this morning. It is the biggest and most enthusiastic gather-ing of its kind ever held in Cache county. There are 178 delegates and pointment of the committees, and they were accorded an uproarious, enthu-

the chest to see if the gun was gone, and found it there, but $25 in money which he had hidden in the bottom of his shaving mug was gone, so he claimed. He therefore wanted his slastic reception.

Judge King made a brief talk, scor nephew arrested for the theft.
Townsend said that he had adopted his nephew as a son when he was 2 years old, and that he did not mind losing the money so much as he did losing his faith in his adopted son. There were three candidates, and each man had a chance to vote for only two, so that the minority would have one out of the three. We had an overwhelming majority, and wanted all three members. So we divided the bor-ough into three districts—A. B and C. The voters in A district were asked to vote for the first two men on our ticket those in B district for the second and third, and those in C district for the first and third. In that way the party strength was divided evenly between the three men on our ticket. The plan worked to a charm. The three ran almost evenly and went in by a big ma-
